Worksheet 8

Sophie the Lady now, is spreading her wings,
It's not a miracle but what a true friend's help brings.
Although she's a little bit scared
she leaves her very best good friend to fly in the sky, high, very high .
She sits on the roof , if you need a proof.
It's time to wave bye bye
to the full moon and the twinkling stars.
Just a minute more above the roof window and then she leaps through the chimney, 'Oh!'
Into her chamber,
where Mouse in the House awaiting her.
is still toiling at threading the needle (again she feels feeble.)
She's tidied the room with a broom.
Put flat and high-heeled shoes in even rows, chocolates in drawers.
Indeed, she has lots of chores.
