

Sophie the Lady and Mouse in the House project

'Friday'

Worksheet 12

The flames go ..... '....., .....' – she says – 'That is enough'.

'It's time for a ....., spread the news across the town' she asks every creature that can .....

'Not only is the soup ....., but also it's especially .....

It will do everybody ....., so if only you .....

like to take a bite, don't hesitate and come ....., you can bring a bunch of .....

No matter you're young or old, you're big or ....., the soup is for .....

You can take your ..... and ....., even ....., even .....

Women with files, men with watering cans, you're welcome!'

And there they come. Can you see them arrive? In ....., in .....

They carry their ..... and ....., up are their .....

The sun is beating down on Friday ....., the feast is starting .....

In the ..... of the ..... there is even a .....

People are shaking ..... listening to performing .....

and tuck into the ....., now and then you can hear them .....

No one moans, no one ....., you can see happiness in their .....

No one takes life for....., this Friday afternoon is .....

No one looks forward to better ..... but appreciates their .....

The air, the sky, the sun, the birds flying ....., nobody will ever .....

the Earth's ..... People are off .....

and are living here and now. It's time to laugh, it's time to smile.

It's time to enjoy . Look, that man in a green turban is playing the .....

Just the way children ..... ,they know. How about you?