

Sophie the Lady and Mouse in the House project

'Friday'

Worksheet 13

And again evening comes, Sophie the Lady arrives at home and watches the skies.
Through the leafy telescope she sees the sparkling stars on the magic dome.
Fortunately none of her friends is in need, nobody asks her to do any good deed.
She is not urged and can be at peace with the world.
Mouse in the House darns the Lady's skirt, she's already served her a delicious dessert.
Looks at the moon, they're going to go to sleep soon.
The woods around echo a lullaby
Mouse in the House is waving to us goodnight, goodbye.
